offering, Avery and Hart, the colored kings of comedy, and many more.

For this week at the Circle Theatre an rical spectacle entitled "In Paris" is the feature. It is a review of the interesting scenes of the last Paris Ex-position. May Edouin and Fred Edwards n the sketch "A Bachelor's Dream," four mighty men of muscle, the famous trained seals and sea lions, a musical dog and several well known vaudeville singers ete the bill=

"Buster, the Bundle of Jollity," is one of the numerous stars at Tony Pastor's. Sabel Johnson, "the world's highest soprano, and a long range of vaudeville notabilities such as rarely come together, except under Mr. Pastor's roof, are also on the pro-

Rose Melville plays "Sis Hopkins" with new comicalities at the West End for the week. She is as popular in this play apparently as when she first began to appear in it "Turned Up," one of Nat Goodwin's first successes, will be the week's revival of the stock company at the Murray Hill Theatre. The cast will include Henry V. Donnelly as Carraway Bones.

"The Wizard of Oz" is still doing great business at the Majestic. Never were the young folks so glad to see a popular play

"Foxy Grandpa," with Joseph Hart and Carrie De Mar in the principal rôles, will be the week's attraction at the New Star.

"Quincy Adams Sawyer" will be seen at the Metropolis Theatre.

The Third Avenue has "In the Shadow of the Gallows," a melodrama with elaborate scenic effects.

Huber's Museum still has the Singalese Dancers and an excellent vaudeville bill in its theatre besides the freaks outside.

"The Dude Among the Tyroleans" is the newest addition to the world in wax at the Eden Musée. The afternoon and evening concerts and the Russo-Japanese war pictures are the other attractions.

On Sunday night Burton Holmes lectures in Carnegie Hall on "Seoul and Corea." Three days later he sails for London to de-liver a course of lectures in Queen's Hall.

The Brooklyn Theatres.

Lulu Glaser in the tuneful and long popular "Dolly Varden," comes to the Montauk Theatre this week. It will be her first ap-pearance in Brooklyn for more than a year.

From the Mexican Heraid.

Sydney H. Shadboldt of Washington, largely interested in a 130,000 acre timber and plantation tract in the State of Vera Cruz on the Coatzacoalcos River, is familiar with all phases of the timber trade, and for several years his attention has been given largely to the purchase and marketing of mahogany. Speaking of mahogany generally, he said:

"Mahogany has been esteemed a very valuable wood for more than 200 years, and during all that time the world has had substantially its whole supply from Mexico, Honduras, Cuba and Santo Domingo. Up to within about ten years the proportion secured from these districts was about 60 per cent from Mexico, 30 per cent from Monduras, and 10 per cent from Cuba and Santo Domingo combined. Now comparatively little is obtained from Cuba, and practically none from Santo Domingo. The product of all of the four districts belong to the same species, but there are marked differences in the fibre of the wood from West India islands and that from the mainland. The Mexican and Honduras growth is of a better grade than any other. The mahogany of Mexico is worth in the United States and Europe from Santo housand feet, on the average. The value of individual logs, however, is occasionally very high, single sticks bringing as much as $5,000." At the Amphion Herr Conried's stock company is to play for a week only. The company will offer a different piece every evening. Two of the most popular will be "The Senator" and "Die Soubrettenschule" (The School for Soubrettes), a farce comedy with songs and dances.

The Misses Spooner will be seen at the Bijou this week in 'The Orphan Heiress,"a play which tells of the efforts of a villain to get at the fortune of a helpless young girl. The big scene of the play shows the girl being thrown into a den of man-eating panthers. She gets out.

'Uncle Tom's Cabin" is to be shown at the Columbia for the week, with real blood-hounds, a real pony for Little Era and a real trained donkey. It isn't only the chil-dren who will like to see these things.

One of the attractions which will take best in Brocklyn this week, however, will
